Fahren

Fahren Estate Agents are proud to present to you this large three bedroom detached bungalow in the peaceful neighbourhood of East Howe, Bournemouth. This is a well proportioned family home, and offers much in the way of space, with light and spacious rooms throughout.

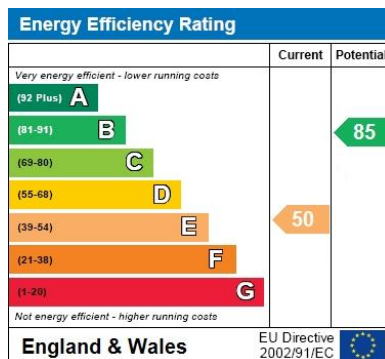

The property welcomes you in with a modern and spacious entrance hall, leading directly to other features of the bungalow. There is a well decorated living room with direct access and views across the rear garden, and also flows into the open plan kitchen/diner, which is big enough to provide for all the modern family needs, with ample food prep areas and space for appliances. You can even accommodate a dining table in the middle.

What you'll notice is that this house has been tastefully decorated throughout, using neutral and serene colours and there remains plenty of space for storage and furniture. From the entrance hall, you have access to three double bedrooms and the main family bathroom, which is tiled and comprises of shower, WC, bath and basin.

The private and secluded rear garden boasts a large lawn area, garage and patio area, which is ideal for seating and BBQs. There is a driveway to the front of the property providing ample off road parking spaces.

The team at Fahren highly recommend booking a viewing to fully appreciate the accommodation on offer.
