The Stables occupies a glorious rural location, tucked away in a peaceful setting within the parish of Risbury, along a "no through road" being well placed for both Hereford and Leominster, communications to main roads are within a short drive which provides access to the Midlands, London and the South.

- Modern Agricultural Barn with Stabling and Fodder Area.
- Mobile Double Stable with All Weather Turnout Area
- Further Storage Sheds.
- Paddocks & Orchard.
- Ample parking for cars and horseboxes.

Grounds of approx. 5.6 Acres

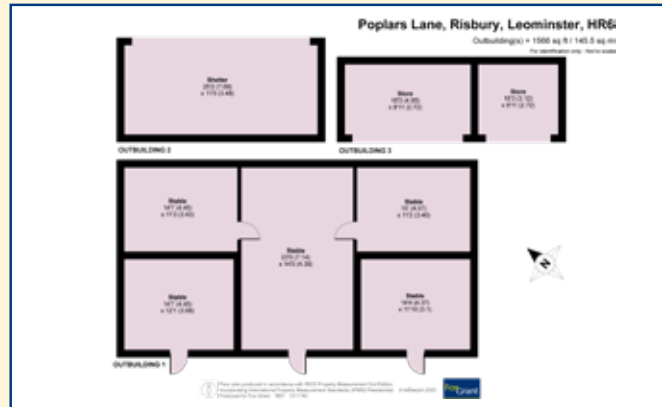

The Stables is well set back off the road and enjoys a private rural location. Ideal for anybody with equestrian or smallholding interests. There is good outriding from the property, directly onto a bridlepath.

Local, Sporting & Recreation The neighbouring village of Bodenham offers several local amenities with village hall, primary school, public house, garage and church. The Market Town of Leominster offers a good range of shops, supermarkets, doctor's surgery, restaurants and traditional pubs. For more extensive retail and cultural therapy at Malvern and Worcester are easily accessible. The surrounding area offers a wealth of sporting and recreational opportunities.

The region is renowned for its strong equestrian industry and the property is well located for many competition centres including Bromyard Equestrian and Hartpury College Equestrian Centre. Horseracing is at Cheltenham, Chepstow, Hereford, Ludlow and Worcester. Pony Club is with North Hereford Pony Club.

THE STABLES

The property is approached via a country lane that leads on to a stone driveway, leading into the parking area in front of the Agricultural Barn for several cars. The Agricultural Barn is of steel construction with internal stables within and fodder area, on the roof are the Solar Panels for the electricity. Opposite is the mobile stable with all-weather turnout area, there is a paddock to the side of this with access onto the fenced off bridle path that lines to the boundary side. The main three paddocks are beyond the yard and are landlocked on both sides, with natural hedges and stock fencing.
