This beautiful home sits on one of Southborough's most sought after roads and is opposite protected woodland and rolling Kent countryside, which deliver a leafy green outlook and picturesque views.

Elevated and set back from the road by its sweeping driveway with parking for several cars, it's handsome Victorian exterior delivers plenty of kerb appeal.

Stepping inside, the entrance hallway with oak wooden flooring opens into the spacious and flexible layout that the home offers over its four floors.

First on the left is the dining room which delivers a great dining experience with a large window framing the woodland view and a wood burning stove for intimate dining experiences. It is conveniently placed next to the kitchen and its open plan aspect makes it a very social space, perfect for entertaining.

Behind the kitchen is beautifully finished and fully equipped, as you would expect from a house of this quality. Light bounces off the gleaming granite counter tops which contrast beautifully with Shaker style cabinetry housing the integrated appliances. The peninsula has a mix of useful storage options, pull out bins, a sink, five ring gas hob and a breakfast bar overhang, perfect for your morning coffee or informal dining.

Returning to the hallway to the rear is a lobby area with a glazed door giving garden access, housing for the boiler and hanging space for coats.

A set of stairs take you down to the lower ground floor with a useful utility cupboard that benefits from an additional sink and space and plumbing for appliances.

There is a generous bedroom at the back, which is currently set up as a home office, with fitted alcove cabinetry and French doors that open onto a garden terrace.

To the front is another double bedroom which is a versatile space and could easily double as a playroom or an informal tv room for older children.

Completing the floor is a large bathroom with a freestanding roll top bath with a hand held shower attachment and a rainwater shower head. To compliment the traditional feel of the room there is a ceramic console wash hand basin.

Returning to the hallway and climbing the stairs to the first floor, past a useful guest cloakroom, there is a double bedroom whose high ceiling, bespoke cabinetry and oak wooden flooring create a restful retreat.

Next door to the front, the living room is effortlessly elegant. Its windows offer treetop views and a marble mantelpiece frames the wood burning stove adding warmth and character in the colder months. There is plenty of room for family sofas making it a very welcoming space.

Up a further set of stairs to the second floor there are two further double bedrooms and a modern shower room.

The principal bedroom to the front extends the width of the house and its graceful proportions and windows offering spectacular views give a very tranquil feeling.

Outside the sunny south facing garden has areas of lawn with a pretty mix of stocked flower beds, and Magnolia and Acer trees. It is fully enclosed by high hedging and fencing, offering a safe sanctuary for children and pets. There is a paved terrace close to the house with a large wooden pergola and climbing wisteria, perfect for seating and summer dining. There are two sheds for storage and side street access too.

Central paving leads to the rear of the garden and a fantastic bespoke home office/gym. It is part glazed and has generous proportions making it an excellent addition for a growing family.

With open countryside on its doorstep and being a stone's throw from easy access to the M25, fast rail connections to central London and first-class schools, it is the perfect home for families with professional needs. A must see!
