GUIDE PRICE £749,995 - £799,995. A unique opportunity to acquire an outstanding, unique and iconic six bedroom Grade II listed property located in the picturesque and historic village of Pevensey. This magnificent flint faced property boasts an abundance of character and charm with many period features including stone mullion windows, exposed beams, original fireplaces and oak character doors. The property has been substantially and sympathetically improved over recent years to combine modern features whilst retaining the period charm. Accommodation comprises spacious entrance hall with oak herringbone floor opening to a large sitting room with stone open fireplace, decorative panelled walls and oak herringbone floor. Located off the main hall is the formal dining room with brick floor and attractive open fireplace which opens to a lovely kitchen with bespoke wall and base units with stone work surfaces and butler sink and some integral appliances. A useful WC/utility room completes the ground floor accommodation. A lovely wooden character staircase rises from the entrance hall to the first floor landing where there are three excellent size bedrooms along with a modern stylish bathroom and a further staircase rises to the top floor where there are a further two bedrooms along with a modern shower room. In addition to the main property, there is the benefit of a completely self contained annexe at the rear of the garden with bedroom and shower room which, with the addition of a kitchenette and subject to usual consents could perfectly be used as an Airbnb or extra accommodation for a relative. There is a pleasant and secluded walled rear garden with the convenience of a number of storage units plus a double garage which is accessed at the rear via Church Lane. There is also an outside WC and boiler room. Banks Lodge is located just a short distance to the Historic Pevensey Castle and there are a variety of pubs, shops and amenities nearby. An internal viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the many merits of this truly wonderful property.
