This three-bedroom semi-detached property offers a fantastic opportunity for first-time buyers or budding renovators looking to put their own stamp on a home. Set back from the road with a private driveway to the front, the house is full of potential and ready for a fresh new chapter.

Inside, you're welcomed by an entrance hall leading to a front-facing dining room—ideal for mealtimes or as a flexible second living space. At the rear, the main lounge enjoys peaceful views across the garden, offering a bright and airy feel. The kitchen, though in need of updating, is a practical space with direct access to the side patio.

Upstairs, there are three well-proportioned bedrooms along with a compact bathroom. While the interiors could benefit from modernisation, the solid layout provides a great canvas to work with.

Outside, the rear garden is paved for easy maintenance and features an outhouse for additional storage. Whether you're planning a full renovation or just a few key updates, this home has all the essentials to get started.

A great opportunity for anyone not afraid of a little DIY, this property has real potential to become a lovely family home.
