86b Palmerston Street, Bollington, Macclesfield, Cheshire, SK10 5PW

This first floor flat is situated within an attractive Victorian building which has been recently converted to a high standard. This has resulted in delightful airy accommodation fitted to a high standard, presented in a clean, bright, contemporary manner.

There are three apartments in the building. This one shares an entrance with the other first floor apartment, each of which have an intercom to the entrance door. There is a private car parking area to the rear of the building with the provision of two off road car parking spaces for the occupiers of this flat.

The location is a convenient one for many of the amenities that Bollington has to offer including shops for everyday needs, the library, recreation parks and a number of pubs and restaurants. There is also the beautiful countryside that surrounds the village.

There are carpets and curtains, gas fired central heating and double glazing to the accommodation which comprises in more detail:-
