A Gough Cooper semi-detached family home in a popular and sought-after location next to Maiden Erlegh Lake and Nature Reserve. The property has undergone some improvements in recent years by the current owner.

As well as being close to the sought-after Aldryngton and Maiden Erlegh schools, there are local shops nearby at The Parade with more extensive facilities at the Asda and Marks & Spencer complexes in Lower Earley.

Bus services in the area provide access into Reading town centre, where the main line railway station offers services on the Elizabeth line, to Paddington, and also to Waterloo which run through the nearby Earley Railway Station.

The M4 motorway can be accessed either at Junction 11, where there is also the A33 south to Basingstoke, as well as Green Park and its new railway station; or at Junction 10 where London then lies approximately 40 miles away and Heathrow Airport approximately 28 miles away.

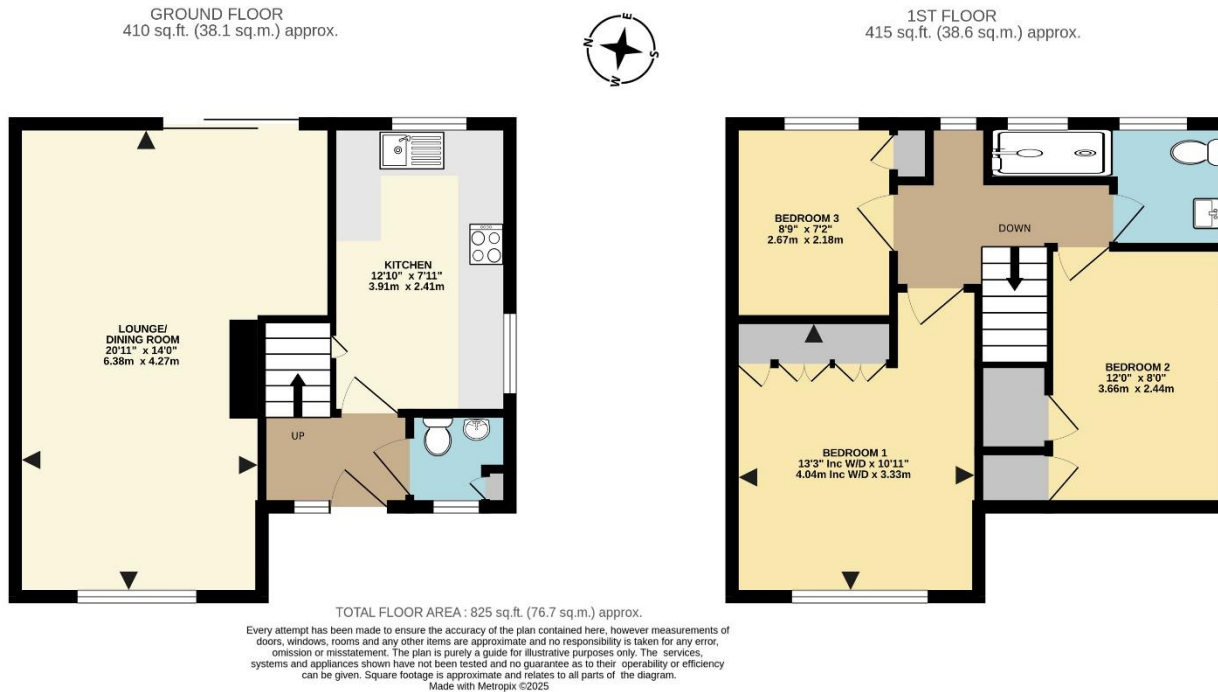

The property is vacant and being sold with no onward chain. The garage roof is probably asbestos concrete. The local residential electric substation is beside the garage.
