50 Meadow Road, Earley, Reading, RG6 7EX - Price £375,000

Large west-facing gardens extending to about 145 feet | No onward chain | In need of renovation and modernisation | Loddon and traditional Maiden Erlegh catchment

2 bedrooms plus box room, bathroom; lounge, dining room, kitchen, driveway parking, detached garage, double glazing, no central heating.

An older style vacant semi-detached house, probably dating from the 1930s with very little in the way of modernisation since, except the installation of double glazing. It is therefore priced accordingly.

The location is superb, being close to popular schools and excellent communication links, including Earley Railway Station and the M4 motorway network. This, plus the large gardens, offer an excellent opportunity for a buyer to improve, update and possibly extend, subject to any necessary consents.

The property recently underwent repair following an insurance claim. In brief, the works comprised repairing and replacing of the drains; and internal and external redecorations. A Certificate of Structural Adequacy has been issued. A full and comprehensive information pack is available upon request from the agent and should be read and considered by any interested party. We are advised that the house insurance policy has now lapsed due to the insurer (Prudential) no longer offering house insurance policies. Therefore, buyers will need to arrange building insurance with a new provider.
