Perched upon New Road, within 10 minutes' walk of the picturesque sea front, Menengai is a 3 double bedroom split level detached bungalow offering spacious accommodation whilst benefiting from uPVC double glazing & gas fired central heating.

Requiring general modernisation, the property provides an excellent opportunity for those seeking a home in this ever popular location, which together with the sandy beach & dunes, benefits from 4 well established pub/restaurants, John's Deli & Coffee Shop and yacht club and easy access to the Tarka Trail walking & cycle path.

Whether you have visions of a standard refurbishment or larger grand design, Menengai provides great potential to create a home reflecting an individual vision & style.

The current layout provides comfortable living space including lower level lounge with feature fireplace & adjoining conservatory enjoying countryside and distant river views.

There is kitchen and adjoining dining area together with utility and store room whilst the 3 double bedrooms are served by a family bathroom and "Jack & Jill" en-suite.

Externally a sweeping driveway leads beyond the bungalow to the double garage & parking area, in turn with steps bypassing established flower & shrubs beds to a rustic wooded area of garden.

To the front is patio seating area and lawn enjoying a south facing aspect together with summerhouse and numerous established shrubs, bushes & trees.
