The property benefits from generous front and rear gardens. A gated pathway leads to the front door and continues around the side of the property, providing convenient access to the rear garden.

The front garden is mainly laid to lawn with mature shrub borders and seating area.

The rear garden again is mainly laid to lawn, providing excellent potential for formal landscaping. Two timber garden sheds provide useful additional storage. Gravel seating area and a raised decked seating area's together with an outside floodlight and outside cold water tap.

Parking

The property benefits from a driveway to the rear, providing valuable ample off-road parking.

Location and Lifestyle

Dudbridge Hill lies just over under a mile from the centre of Stroud, offering easy access to all local amenities, while also being only a short walk from Rodborough and Selsley Commons and its beautiful open landscapes. Stroud is one of Gloucestershire's most sought after market towns, set amidst the scenic Cotswold countryside and the convergence of the Five Valleys. Residents benefit from a mix of historic charm and contemporary amenities, including a bustling street market, shops, pubs, restaurants and bistros. First class schools cater to all age groups, while excellent local bus services and proximity to the M5 motorway provide convenient access to Gloucester, Cheltenham and Bristol.

Education and Connectivity

The area is well served by top rated schools for all age groups and benefits from a reliable local bus network. The nearby M5 motorway provides easy access to major cities, while Stroud's mainline railway station offers a direct, high speed service to London in approximately 90 minutes.
