Connecting People & Property Perfectly.

Nestled in a quaint location, this charming bungalow, built in the 1950's, positioned just a stone's throw away from major schools, town centre and shops, convenience and accessibility are key features of this delightful property. Boasting three bedrooms and two reception rooms, this well built residence exudes a sense of warmth and character. One of the stand out features of this bungalow is its enchanting wrap around sun trap garden. The well manicured garden not only provides a private oasis but also offers a perfect setting for outdoor gatherings, relaxation, and play. Enjoying distant views of the sea and the surrounding rural landscape, creating a picturesque backdrop that adds to the properties allure. Surrounded by historical buildings, the bungalow becomes a part of the rich tapestry of the local heritage. Numerous works have been undertaken to enhance and improve the residence, ensuring a comfortable and stylish living space. Access to the property is secured through a gated entrance, providing an added layer of privacy and security. The bungalow sits on a large plot, offering ample space for outdoor activities, expansion possibilities, and gardening enthusiasts. A garage and dedicated parking space further add to the convenience and practicality of this well appointed home.
