

72 Ville Du Bocage

72 Ville Du Bocage, St Peter, JE3 7AT

New to the market is this fabulous semi detached family home, located in the popular Ville du Bocage. Positioned close to village amenities, shopping, and eateries, it offers a highly convenient setting for a young family. Recently updated throughout, the property also benefits from approved planning permission to extend and further enhance the accommodation (details available upon request). Currently comprising four double bedrooms, including one on the ground floor, ideal for guests or an older child, the home features a fully integrated kitchen, separate lounge and dining room, and direct access to the low-maintenance rear garden. The garden is mostly laid to artificial grass with a raised patio, perfect for al fresco dining. The first floor provides three additional bedrooms along with the house bathroom. Externally, the property boasts a large storage shed/workshop and a recently resurfaced driveway with parking for up to six cars, plus ample visitor parking within the development. Families also benefit from the safe, community focused environment, with lawned play areas and pedestrian access to schools and shops.
